IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR HOME, LANDLORD, RENTAL OR PERSONAL AUTOMOBILE POLICY PREMIUM

State of Washington – Suspension of Credit History in Insurance Rating

The Washington State Office of the Insurance Commissioner has suspended the use of credit history to calculate Home, Rental or Personal Automobile policy premiums.

The new rule applies to all insurance carriers and all new policies effective June 20, 2021 and later. It also applies to all renewal policies processed on June 20, 2021 and later.

In accordance with this new rule, Travelers has modified its home, landlord, rental and personal auto products and removed the impact of credit history in determining your policy premium. As a result, you may see changes to your policy premium.

For more information, visit the Office of the Commissioner’s website: www.insurance.wa.gov.

If you have any questions specific to your policy, please contact your agent, or call a Travelers representative at (323) 375-1121.

You may be eligible for a policy in a newer product from one of our other Travelers companies. The way we determine the price for a policy is done differently for the newer product. For example, we may use new criteria, such as the building characteristics of your home, or we may use the existing criteria in a different manner. A new product policy might cost you less or more than what you now pay. It may also have different features than your current policy. You may continue with your current policy, or you may request a policy in the new program. We also offer many other ways to save on your premium. Travelers is here to help - so contact your agent or Travelers representative to discuss whether a different Travelers Homeowners insurance policy is right for you.

Coverage for your personal property has been increased by 3.2% to reflect the estimated cost to replace your covered property. This adjustment is based on information from a Consumer Price Index. It is your responsibility to know and understand the amount of insurance you have purchased. If you believe the renewal coverage limit is not appropriate, please contact your insurance representative to help you decide the appropriate amount of insurance for your personal property and process any necessary adjustments.

It is important that the information we used to rate your policy is correct. It is your responsibility to make sure that the information on these Declarations is accurate and complete, including checking that you are receiving all the discounts for which you are eligible. To see a full list of discounts offered, including discounts for having multiple policies with us, protecting your home with safety devices and being claim free, go to www.travelers.com/discounts. Once at the website, type in your policy number 6036152786341 and product code HQ2 to view the discounts available. If any of the information on the Declarations has changed, appears incorrect, or is missing, please advise your Travelers agent or representative immediately. Your Travelers agent or representative is also available to review the information on the Declarations with you.

This is not a bill. You will be billed separately for this transaction.

Thank you for insuring with Travelers. We appreciate your business. If you have any questions about your insurance, please contact your agent or representative.

These declarations with policy provisions H0-4 WA(11-06) and any attached endorsements form your Homeowners Insurance Policy. Please keep them with your policy for future reference.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT DAMAGE CAUSED BY FLOODING

Water

Water

Everywhere ...

Flooding occurs in EVERY state! Many people find out too late that they are at risk for flooding, and even worse that their property insurance doesn't cover flood damage.

- Your Homeowners policy DOES NOT cover damage to your property caused by flooding.
- Your home has a 26% chance of being damaged by a flood during the course of a 30-year mortgage, compared to a 9% chance of fire.
- Six out of every ten presidentially declared disasters involve flooding!
- Homes in areas where there is new construction or where there have been other events, such as forest fires, may be in greater danger than in the past because of changes to the land around them.
- Approximately 25% of all floods occur outside of a high-risk flood area.
- Federally backed mortgages in certain areas require flood insurance policies for the life of the mortgage.

Flood insurance is available to communities and property that participate in the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP). Not all communities participate in the NFIP. Flood insurance may be available even if you do not live in a flood hazard area as defined by the NFIP. To see if your community and property are eligible for coverage with the NFIP you may call the NFIP at 1-800-427-4661. For more information on flood insurance and to obtain a flood risk profile on your property visit www.FloodSmart.gov.

Your independent agent can provide you with a quote for a flood policy. Even if you already have a flood policy, you may want to discuss coverages with your agent to ensure that your policy is up to date.

If your community does not participate in the NFIP, your independent agent may be able to find other coverage available to you.
